BACHELOR OF ARCHITECTURE AND URBANISM

MAURITIUS CAMPUS
BACHELOR DEGREE
IN ARCHITECTURE AND URBANISM

---

ensa Nantes is part of the network composed of 20 French ENSAs. It offers courses in the field of architecture, urban territories and specializations in naval architecture and scenography. The establishment of ensa Nantes in the Indian Ocean represents one of the aspects of the school's international strategy, and its contribution to the outreach of the French higher education system in the world. It is perfectly linked to the development of architecture and urbanism in Mauritius. The school's mission is to give students the best skills, both disciplinary and transversal, so that they are able to address contemporary challenges

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

We are highly selective when it comes to the candidates we choose for our institution. Our Bachelor's degree in Architecture and Urbanism applies the following eligibility criteria:

- A or B in main subjects,
- Open-minded and with a curious personality,
- Motivation to create and communicate.

TUITION FEES

The registration fees for the Bachelor's degree in Architecture and Urbanism are:

- 6,500 euros per year, payable in two monthly instalments at the beginning of each semester.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE COURSE:

The B-Arch classes are delivered either in French or in English, with approximately 30-50% in English. Applicants are thus expected to have a good background in French and English language (B2 level – CEFR).

SELECTION OF APPLICANTS

The recruitment process involves three steps:

- Initial selection from the applications for graduates holding an HSC certificate or BAC certificate,
- The selected applicants will be interviewed in Mauritius, Nantes or via Skype to test their maturity, curiosity and narrative ability.
- The Admissions Committee examines the interview reports and proceeds to the selection of candidates accepted on the
